Delivering end-to-end identity management tailored to corporates.

Data breaches are here to stay

Situation

Every company these days has to have control over who can access which data in their organisation.

Regulations are ramping up

End-users demand privacy

Too slow

Too cumbersome

Too expensive

Challenge

Typical identity governance programs take years to set up and require substantial specialized workforce.

While this may work for enterprises with a cyber security budget of millions, this is not feasible for

90%

of the companies out there

okta + ELIMITY

Together, Okta and Elimity create a best-in-class solution for end-to-end identity management with the fastest ROI in the market, tailored to the needs of corporates.
